

WARD RESOURCES

6239

(May 2003)

Responsibility

Camp Superintendent

The operation of ward canteens, handicraft programs, library, mail, visiting, volunteers, manuscripts, legal documents, and personal property in each conservation camp will be in accordance with the Institutions and Camp Manual (I&C Manual).

CLOTHING

6239.1

(May 2003)

Responsibility

Camp Superintendent

A clothing allotment has been established to properly clothe each ward in the camp program. Ward clothing will be, for the most part, restricted to the items listed in the I & C Manual. Special, or safety, clothing required for ward crews will be retained on the Crew Carrying Vehicles for emergencies. See Section 6565.1.

WARD HANDICRAFT PROGRAM

6239.2

(May 2003)

Responsibility

Camp Superintendent

The Camp Superintendent may, after consultation with the Division Chief, establish an ward handicraft program. If established, or existing, the program will be detailed in a local Camp Operations Manual. (See Sections 6211-6213). In addition to items required for the local Operational Guidelines, the Camp Superintendent will include procedures that ensure compliance with other conservation camp activity standards, knife and tool control, and the Injury and the Illness Prevention Plan.
